

Opelika High Theatre Society Honored

We had a full house Tuesday night when the Opelika High Theatre Society visited the City Council. Mayor Fuller recognized OHS students for winning Best in Show and moving on to the Southeastern Theatre Conference in March. We wish them the best of luck! Mayor Fuller presented the group with the following:

Certificate of Achievement

Presented to The Opelika High Theatre Society

In recognition of being named

Best in Show at the State Trumbauer Theatre Competition, Florence, Alabama.

Because of your hard work and dedication, you will represent the State of Alabama in Lexington, Kentucky, at the Southeastern Theatre Conference in March 2017. Together, with Theatre Director Revel Gholston, you are making your community and school proud. We wish you the best of luck performing "Children of Eden" at the competition.

Given on the 7th Day of February, 2017 at the regular meeting of the Opelika City Council.
