PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 1 , 2020

OPELIKA, Ala. – Due to continued concerns with COVID-19, Opelika Municipal Court has issued an extension to an emergency order put out on March 13, 2020. This order shall remain in effect until May 15, 2020, or until such time as the Supreme Court of Alabama issues further Orders related to the COVID-19 outbreak as it relates to the Judicial Branch. If no further orders are issued, court will resume on May 20, 2020.

Opelika Municipal Court will implement any required restrictions on occupancy and comply fully with the recommendations and requirements of the Safer at Home Order concerning protections for employees and other individuals.

The Court will reschedule all non-jail hearings previously scheduled between May 1, 2020 and May 15, 2020. Court employees will be mailing continuance letters. Please call the Municipal Court office to update your mailing address.

During this order and to limit in-person contact, only inmates who have not made bond will appear in court.

For more information, call 334-705-5196.
